In-Home Services: Private Pay

Provides people of all ages and needs, as well as organizations, with a broad range of in-home services. JEVS is widely recognized for delivery of quality services to the residents of the Delaware Valley for more than 40 years. Some services are now available in New Jersey.

Non-Medical In-Home Care Options

- All models offer personal assistance, light housekeeping, companionship, shopping, etc.
- Agency model provides JEVS staff for attendant care, and the consumer or his/her representative oversees care and chooses the worker's schedule
- Registry model refers credentialed candidates to the consumer for employment; the consumer or his/her representative directs the care
- Payroll and household management: an accounting service to create paychecks for consumers who employ their own caregivers

Ancillary Services

- Assistance with assessing the need for home modifications and oversight of installation
- Geriatric Care Managers help the consumer navigate health care and other supports, enabling them to continue living at home
- Assistance for veterans and/or their spouses with the application for the Veterans' Non-Connected Service Pension benefit
