BACKGROUND

About Teen Battle Chef

Youth challenge themselves and test skills while being part of a team effort. Leadership, teamwork and culinary skills are developed while gaining nutritional knowledge and an appreciation for diverse, healthy and sustainably-produced food. Teen Battle Chefs share their new cooking skills and excitement for healthy eating with friends and family!

About 11th Street Family Health Services

The Stephen and Sandra Sheller 11th Street Family Health Services of Drexel University's College of Nursing and Health Professions partners with the Family Practice & Counseling Network in providing health care across the life span. The center offers primary care as well as health and wellness programs, including diabetes management, healthy cooking, physical therapy, mind-body wellness, prenatal care and stress management.

About Kitchen Table

Kitchen Table, operated by JEVS Human Services in conjunction with the Department of Human Services' Achieving Independence Center, provides valuable life skills to youth transitioning out of foster care. The program includes workshops, training on nutrition, kitchen safety, cooking skills and household financial management. Participant confidence and independence is enhanced via project-based learning.
